T WITTE DENIES REPORT

Threatened General Strike Is t to Collapse as the Workmen ughout the Empire Did Not Re- to the Call.

Petersburg, Nov. 16.—4:20 p. m nic prevailed on the bourse to- the result of a rumor that the Duke Nicholas Nicholievitch, nander of the imperial guards, had appointed military director.

There was a stampede of holders of dustrial stocks who hastened to un- ad. Government lotteries fell 25 oints to 400 and imperial 4's dropped 83½, a lower point than touched any time during the war.

M. Vouich, chief of Premier Witte's hancellory authorized the Associated ress to positively deny the rumor that dictator had been appointed. He lso declared that it had not been de- ided to eclare martial law in St. Pe- rsburg.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17—The outlook s much less threatening today, the eneral strike promising to collapse within a few days. The appeal made o the country to join in the movement met with no response and the dissen- ions in the workmen's council are in- creasing.

It is now apparent that extremists took the decision to order a general po- litical strike hastily and without due preparation in the belief that the whole country would rise at their bidding and continue the revolutionary movement.

Having once demonstrated the power of a general strike as a weapon with which to terrorize the government the leaders believed they could invoke it at a moment's notice, but popular sym- pathy failed to respond and the lead- ers are reluctantly compelled to admit that they cannot force a last ditch fight, but must content themselves with calling the present strike a "dem- onstration." While the organized work- men of St. Petersburg obeyed the or- der to strike many did so grumblingly. In the face of the winter and the ne- cessity of providing for their families many of them did not want to stop work. At the Russo-American rubber works this morning anti-strikers beat off and drove away a strike deputation which came to order the workmen out.

None of the papers except the Offi- cial Messenger appeared this morning but the printers of each newspaper themselves published fly sheets an- nouncing that the strike was for the purpose of abolishing the state of siege, the death penalty and martial law throughout Poland. It is now definitely established that the cry set up by the socialist leaders against the execution of the Cronstadt mutineers was premature as their trials have not yet actually begun.

The snow storm which began lasts night is still raging.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—A special meeting of the cabinet with Emperor Nicholas presiing is being held this af- ternoon at Tsarskoe-Selo to consider the situation. The emperor, who arrived at the pal- ace at Tsarskoe-Selo last night from Peterhoff called today's meeting upon Count Witte's suggestion.

Football Is Barred.

San Jose, Calif., Nov. 17.—The stu- dent body of San Jose High school yielded yesterday to the agitation against football and passed resolutions barring the game until more strict rules are enacted. Every school in the country has abandoned football be- cause of the death of Clarence E. Van Boheelen from injuries received in a game a week ago last Saturday be- tween the San Jose and Santa Clara high schools.

LUMBER MEN ELECT OFFICERS.

Two Bodies Meet at Columbia—$20,- 000,000 Capital Represented.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 17.—At the joint meeting of the North Carolina Pine Association and the South Caro- lina Lumber association held here, the bodies as heretofore arranged were merged into the former. The new as- sociation will practically control the lumber industry in the two carolinas, Virginia and a part of Maryland. Its combined capital will represent $20,- 000,000, and its annual output will amount to about one billion feet of lum- ber. E. C. Fosburg, of Norfolk, was elected president. Three vice presi- dents were chosen: South Carolina, D. T. McKeithan, Lumber; North Caro- lina, John A. Wilkinson, Belhaven; Virginia, R. J. Camp, of Norfolk.

After discussion it was decided to accept price list of the South Carolina association on long leaf pine. The as- sociation also discussed methods of expediting transportation.

At the afternoon session an address was made by Mr. Edward A. Braniff, of the forest service, on "The Determina- tion of Timber Value."

Between eighty and ninety delegates were present at the sessions, and the meeting was concluded with a banquet in Craven hall.

McClellan Wants Fair Count.

New York, Nov. 17.—Mayor McClel- lan joined with W. R. Hearst in re- questing that the supreme court grant the application for a mandamus to compel the production of original tal- ly sheets before the board of county canvassers. The application was granted as soon as the mayor's request was made known at the argument be- fore Justice Amend. Judge Alton B. Parker, speaking in behalf of the may- or, said that Mr. McClellan desired there should be a full opportunity given to have the will of the voters, as ex- pressed on election day, fully and offi- cially expressed. Before the manda- mus was granted the board of county canvassers had reconvened and had ad- journe until Thursday awaiting the court's ecision.

She was a native of Gwinnett couty, Georgia, and was 20 years of age when the Semi- nole Indians attacked her family and killed her father and mother and took her brother captive. Mrs. Bumbalow retained her memory and mental ac- tivity until within a few hours of her death, and talked interestingly of the old days. She was an old woman when the civil war begun. Coursen, of Scranton, Pa., three Yale students were rescued after 11 o'clock last night from their perilous position by Captain Edward Baldwin, of Deonford, who put out from that place in a naptha launch. The three students seemed little the worse for their day's experience, and when they landed they said they had had a fine time. They started from Double Beach at 5 o'clock this morning on a duck shooting trip in two small duck boats.

CONTEST FOR THE MAYORALTY

The Board of Canvassers Allow No One But Themselves to Handle Sheets. One District Shows a Gain of Seven Votes for Hearst.

New York, Nov. 17.—The original tally sheets in New York's recent may- oralty election were opened today by the board of county canvassers.

W. R. Hearst's lawyers protested eight of the first thirteen sheets taken from the envelopes, because they were found to differ from th returns on which the count electing Mr. McClel- lan mayor was based.

In one election district Mr. Hearst was found to have seven more votes than were counted for him.

In the thirteenth election district of the first assembly district the tally sheets showed that twenty-nine votes missing from the published count. It was not stated which candidate these uncounted ballots had been cast.

The board of canvassers allowed no one but themselves to handle the tally sheets. Counsel for both Mr. Hearst and Mayor McClellan were allowed to read all the sheets without touching them. Comparisons were confined to the votes cast for mayor, comptriller and president of the board of ader- men.

COAL BARGE IS SUNK.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 17.—The ocean- going coal barge Frank Pendleton was cut in two and sunk by the Merchants and Miners' Transportation company's steamer Kershaw, off the Lambert's Point coal piers in the outer harbor today as the Kershaw was coming in from Boston loaded with freight and passengers.

The Pendleton was lying at anchor off the coal piers awaiting to sail in tow for Providence, R. I., with coal. Captain Melandze, of the Pendleton and his entire crew were rescued by the Kershaw, which, after standing by for a time, proceeded to her Nor- folk pier.

No statement is made concerning the cause of the accident.

The Kershaw suffered only a slight loss of paint from her bow.

Not a Foreigner Appointed.

Washington, Nov. 17.—No ta single foreigner has been appointed to the American consular service abroad since Secretary Root assumed office With the intention of meeting the de mands of the business world for the improvement of the consular system as far as he can without waiting for con gressional action this marks one of the reforms that the secretary has adopted Aside from the fact that a foreigner naturally might be expected to take less interest than an American in the development of our trade abroad it is felt that that political stress which are international relations might be come strained, no such test should be placed upon the loyalty of the foreign consular agent to this native county as would be impose dby requiring him to do his full duty to the country which merely employs him.

Ex-Speaker Henderson Very Ill.

Dubuque, Iowa, Nov. 17.—With his aged brother as a nurse, heroic meas- ures are being taken to prolong the life of ex-Speaker David Henderson. A. C. Henderson, who is a trained nurse of long experience, is wrapping his brother in scorching blankets in order to draw the blood from the head and produce a better circulation. Or- dinary medical treatment has been abandoned and under the new treat- ment which the speaker's brother has often tried before with success; no opinion are needed. George Hender- son, a brother of the speaker, resides at San Diego, is also reported to be dying, but the news is being kept from the two brothers in Dubuque.

STRENUOUS SESSION HELD.

Labor Dedegates Have Many Impor- tant Questions Before Them.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 17.—The first session of the fourth day's proceedings.

P. H. Scullin, a labor organizer who is known to union men in all parts of the United States, was severely criti- cised by Frank Duffy, of Indianapolis, who took exception to yesterday's ac- tion of the Federation in adopting a resolution endorsing the industrial peace association. Delegate Duffy, who is secreary of the Brotherhood of Car- penters and Joines, charged Scullin with irregularities in connection with labor affairs in various parts of the country.

President Gompers anounced that the matter would be given attention later.

Delegate Johannesen offered a mo- tion refusing a donation of $100 made by H. C. Frick for the entertainment of the Federation delegates. The speaker said the money was tainted with the blood of the Homestead steel struke and should not beacepted under any circumstances. The motion was vigorously cheered and Johannesen was requested to put it in writing and present it later to the committee for action.

W. R. Moser, fraternal delegate from the British Labor Trades' council, was then introduced and addressed the con- vention at length on the labor situa- tion in England.

REFUSED TO PAY FRANCE.

Venezuela Has Turned Down Plumley Arbitration Award.

Paris, Nov. 17.—The foreign office is advised that President Castro yes- terday refused to pay the second in- stallment of the Plumley arbitration warad. The arbitration covered dam- ages sustained by French citizens in Venezuela during revolutionary peri- ods prior to 1903. Judge Frank Plum- ley, of Northfield, Vt., was president of the arbitration commission which met at Northfield last year.

The judgment was in favor of France which was awarded about $650,000, and President Castro paid the first in- stallment of the award three months ago. The second payment, due yes- terday, was not paid.

Apparently, the Venezuelan presi- den't failure to pay the installment was on the ground that diplomatic rela- tions between France and Venezuela are interrupted. The officials here decline to admit that this justified President Castro in not paying the in- stallment.

The incident is considered to be a further provocation.

FIVE PEOPLE ARE BURNED TO DEATH

Residents of New York Tene ment Perish in Flames.

VICTIMS WERE ALL ITALIANS.

Bodies of Three Women and Two Men Are Recovered, and More Remains May Yet Be Found—Fireman Saved Many Lives.

New York, Nov. 17.—At least five persons were burned to death in an Italian tenement house at 221 East Seventy-third street, early today.

The house was six stories high and the sleeping tenants on the five upper floors were made prisoners by the flames, with the ground floor a roaring furnace beneath them. Taree of those who lost their lives were kneeling in prayer when the fire reachd them.

Within the first hour, after the fire was under control, the bodies of three women and two men had been taken from the stairways between the sec- ond and third floors. The police be- lieve that the fire was started by an incendiary. The fire started in a heap of rubbish at the bottom of an air shaft, and spread through the in- terior of a grocery store on the ground floor.

Within a few moments all the fire es. capes were packed with persons whom the flames had cut off from escape by the interior stairways.

When the fire department arrived with its ladders nearly every one on the fire escapes was kneeling in pray- er. Adding to the pathos of the scene was the action of the men who stood with their arms full of personal posses- sions while their wives fought unaided to protect the children from being trampled by the crowd or suffocated by the smoke.

Every one on the fire escapes was saved by the firemen. The dead:

Guiseppi Randazzo.

The wounded woman sprang out of the door and ran a block, when she dropped from exhaustion, due to the loss of blood. The woman at whose house the shooting ocurred says the man and woman, who met there accidentally, quarreled about the own- ership of a watch.

The coroner is investigating on the theory that another party might have shot both parties, but Miss Scarbor ough, who is still alive and cannot re cover, declares that Webb did the shooting.

Webb has a family at Pelham, Ala. Miss Scarborough's home is at Smith field, a suburb.

SHOOTS WOMAN; KILLS SELF.

Tragedy Occurs in Suburbs of Birming- ham, Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 17.—After having been closeted in a room for an hour at the house of a negro washerwo- man on the south side, Robert Webb, employed by the Krebs Lumber com- pany, shot and fatally wounded Miss Nora Scarborough, aged 23, and then turned his pistol to his own breast and put a bullet through his heart, dy- ing instantly. The wounded woman sprang out of the door and ran a block, when she dropped from exhaustion, due to the loss of blood. The woman at whose house the shooting ocurred says the man and woman, who met there accidentally, quarreled about the own- ership of a watch.

The coroner is investigating on the theory that another party might have shot both parties, but Miss Scarbor ough, who is still alive and cannot re cover, declares that Webb did the shooting.

Webb has a family at Pelham, Ala. Miss Scarborough's home is at Smith field, a suburb.

The first steamer making a trip in this service is the Afghan Prince, which will arrive in Boston about Nov. 23, from Yokohama, Shang- hai, Manila and other Far Eastern ports.

MANY CASES IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

Grand Jury Releases Several Men Held For Murder.

CONSIDERABLE WORK HANDLED

Several Unimportant Cases Carried Over—The Common Law Docket is Nearly Finished—One Appeal Taken.

The November term of the circuit court for Alachua county was continued yesterday, Judge J. T. Wills presiding

The ejectment case of Palmer vs. Parker, in which W. H. Palmer brought an action against Fannie Parker, was of some length. The evidence consisted of a record of the proceedings and judgment of a justice of the peace. The record was objected to by the attorney for the defendant, and the court sustained the objection, which resulted in a verdict by the jury, on direction of the court, of not guilty. The case will be taken to the supreme court.

The following cases in assumpsit were disposed of: Waterman & Co. vs. E. J. Baird, judgment for $218.64; Edward Anderson vs. E. J. Baird, judgment for $1,200; L. N. Pearce, judgment for $220 95.

The Albion Mining and Manufacturing Co. vs. Riley & Millard, replevin, resulted in a judgment for the plaintiff for 25 tons of phosphate rock. A similar case by these same parties also resulted in a like judgment for the plaintiff.

In the case of J. R. Eddins vs. Sam Cook, in assumpsit, a judgment was obtained for $750.

The following who were before the grand jury charged with murder were discharged, no true bill being found: March Debose, Ed Kite, Will Harris and Dan Johnson.

Several unimportant cases were continued for the term.

The common law docket is nearly finished up and the term will not be so long as some anticipated at the opening of the session.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

Adopted on the Death of Mrs. Ella Fagan of This City.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted by the Home Mission and the Woman's Foreign Mission societies on the death of Mrs. Ella Fagan, at their meeting held on November 16th, 1905:

Whereas, God, our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom and mercy has seen fit to take from our midst our beloved sister and co-worker, Mrs. Ella Fagan; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in her death the M. E. Church, South, has lost one of its faithful members and our societies one of their earnest and devoted workers.

Resolved, That we question not the wisdom or goodness of Him who suffered this stroke to come upon us, but that we humbly bow to His holy will, believing that He doeth all things well for those who love and serve Him.

Resolved, That we emulate her many virtues and cherish the memory of her association with us in the work of our societies.

Resolved, That we extend our sympathy to her bereaved family and relatives, and that we commend them to Him whose word assures the blessedness of "the dead that die in the Lord."

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

ECONOMIZING IN PRINTING.

Government Office Not Turning Out as Much Work.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Acting Public Printer Ricketts, in an interview published today says:

Judging from the volume of work now being turned out at the government printing office, economy has struck the government departments hard. We are now printing about as much stuff as we did five or six years ago. The amount has fallen off greatly within the last three months and during my connection with the office has never been at so low a point as now.

Mr. Ricketts attributed the falling off in requests to printing to the influence of the president and he determination of the heads of the departments to cut down the printing bills which had grown to enormous proportions.

Mr. Ricketts thought the investigation of the Keep commission and that more recently the Landis committee, who had much to do with the now existing conditions.

It has been necessary in some instances to lay off employes of the office who were working temporarily. This, with sick leaves, has reduced the force, and there are perhaps less men and women at work in the printing office this month than at any other time for several years. Mr. Ricketts said it did not look as though it would be necessory to employ many extra printers this winter.

WOMAN AWARDED BIG ALIMONY

Important Decision is Rendered by an Ohio Judge—Lawyers Get $6,000.

Cincinnati, Nov. 17.—Deciding that a separation was warranted under all the circumstances, alimony to the amount of $250 a month and attorney's fees of $6,000, were ordered by Judge James B. Swing, in this city, today in the suit of Mrs. Madden for alimony pending the decision of the Kentucky courts on the suit for divorce between John E. Madden and herself. The alimony is to be secured to Mrs. Madden permanently, but the Ohio court holds that the children are within the jurisdiction of the Kentucky court and that the Ohio court cannot decide as to their disposition. It is further decided that Mrs. Maden's bona fide residence is in Cincinnati, and that she could, therefore, maintain a suit for divorce in the Ohio courts which have jurisdiction in her case.

Judge Swing believed a reconciliation was seemingly impossible, and therefore a separation was warranted, and the wife's support imperative.

No Shortage in Clerk's Books.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 17.—If the inspectors who examined the books of Edward C. Bearden, the late money order clerk of the Augusta postoffice, have found any shortage, there has been no statement to that effect. Last night Assistant Postmaster E. B. Hook in reply to a question, said that he knew of no such finding, and made the statement that he knew of no reason why the inspectors would decline to make such a statement, though, as a matter of fact, the result of the examination would be made known to the postoffice department in Washington. Miss Mamie Bearden, sister of the late E. C. Bearden, now lies at the point of death at her home here. She has been in ill health ever since the shock caused by her brother's suicide.

Men Absorbed in Hot Metal.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—During the inquest held in the cases of John F. Orkin and Joseph Garcia, laborers, who were killed at the Midvale Steel works on Nov. 10, it was testified that the two men had entered a pit and that 80,000 pounds of hot metal poured from a leak and completely absorbed them. Not a trac eof the bodies of the men was discovered. The steel company has decided to take about 8,000 pounds of the steel from the place where the men were last seen and have it buried out of respect for the dead workmen. The cononer's jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.

Molders Quit Their Jobs.

Decatur, Ala., Nov. 17.—The conference held here by Curtis and Dolan, representatives of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, and a committee of molders was in session all day, the railroad refusing to meet the demands of the molders. The molders asked for their time, which was given them. Everything is quiet and most of the men have left for other foundries. No trouble is looked for.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a cough or cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed at all drug stores. Trial bottles free.

Neither Duelist Was Injured.

Sidney, N. S., Nov. 17.—News has reached here from St. Pierre, Miquelon, yesterday that a duel was recently fought between Louis Legass and M. Capron, former chief justice of the Island. The weapons used are said to have been pistols and the distance 45 paces. Neither party was injured. The duel was the result of an old election feud.

Reduction on Cotton Tariff.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 17.—The tariff commission considered a variety of applications yesterday largely of a personal character. A reduction in the duty on white cotton from 25 per cent to 15 per cent was asked by the Ontario Cutters' association. The American Wall Paper company pressed for a reduction in the tariff.

Always on the Watch.

Children have ears like the very spies of nature itself—eyes that penetrate all subterfuge and pretense. It is good to set before them the loftiest ideals that have lived in human reality, but the best ideal of all has to be portrayed by parents in the realities of home life at home. When you are not watching and the children are—that is when the lessons are learned for life.

ANNIVERSARY ANIMADVERSION.

Enjoyed at the Cottage Home of Albert Weber, North Gainesville.

Thursday evening, November 16th, was a very memorable one for Albert Weber, the piano manufacturer, who has resided in North Gainesville for a year, that evening being his first to celebrate. There was a large number present at his pleasant cottage and nothing was spared to make the occasion long to be remembered.

Mr. Weber has a cultured taste for decorations and he did this part with a lavish hand. It was a perfect bower of beauty and admired by the recherche gathering of beauty and beaux of this city.

Music and mirth made the evening glide swiftly by until the time for the dainty refreshments, when the large crowd partook of a toothsome repast that was in keeping with the other arrangements so carefully carried out in every detail. It was an event long to be remembered by all.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Boy Run Over and Killed.

Atlanta(Nov. 17.—While attempting to cross the street opposite the home of his parents, David Robinson, the 3-year-old son of Morris Robinson, of 118 Piedmont avenue, was run over and killed by a coal wagon driven by Jim Kitchens, a negro, who works for J. W. Willis. It is said that the negro was driving a double team at a gallop down Piedmont avenue, and after the heavy coal wagon had knocked down and run over the little child did not stop until his horses were brought to a standstidd by citizens. The negro was taken hold of, but later succeeded in escaping before the police arrived on the scene.

Held White Boy in Peonage.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 17.—John Thomas and Ellen Martin, of Cherokee county, South Carolina, were arrested and taken to Blacksburg by Deputy United States Marshal A. L. Hollman on a charge of holding a white boy named Fitzhugh White in peonage. The prisoners were placed under $500 bond by United States Commissioner E. A. Trescott, who will hear the evidence Monday.

Smith Re Elected Mayor of Macon.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 17.—In one of the closest and most exciting contests Macon has ever known, Bridges Smith defeated Judge A. L. Miller for the mayoralty. The majority given Mr. Smith was 83. The total vote polled was 2,300. Some votes, however, were thrown out on account of improper arrangement by parties casting the ballots.

Both Took Pains.

Young Wife—I took great pains with that cucumber salad, John, and I hope you enjoyed it. Husband (anxiously)—I'm afraid, my dear, that I took great pains with it too.

A Disastrous Calamity.

It is a disastrous calamity when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Prompt relief can be had in Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at all drug stores; 25c.

Land Was Out of Sight.

"Yes," said one of the traveling men who were telling stories in front of the hotel, "I was once out of sight of land on the Atlantic ocean twenty-one days."

"On the Pacific one time I didn't see land for twenty-nine days," said another. A little, baldheaded man tilted his chair against a post and knocked the ashes from his cigar.

"I started across the Kaw river near Lawrence in a skiff once when I was a kid," he said, "and was out of sight of land before I reached the other side."

"Aw, come off!" came from one of the crowd. "The Kaw isn't more than 300 yards wide anywhere along near Lawrence."

"I didn't say it was," said the little man quietly. "The skiff turned over, and I sank twice."—Kansas City Times.

What He Did to "Hamlet."

A group of actors at the Players' club were once engaged in a discussion as to the ability and impartiality of certain professional critics of the drama, when Maurice Barrymore referred to a certain Denver journalist who was widely known for his dramatic criticisms. "Hayward," said Mr. Barrymore, "was certainly one of the ablest of them. He wrote most learnedly, with the keenest analysis of every phase of the actor's art, and, above all, with no little wit. I am just reminded of what was perhaps the briefest dramatic criticism ever penned. It will probably outlive everything else Hayward did. It ran about as follows:

"'George C. Miln, the preacher-actor, played "Hamlet" at the Tabor Grand Opera House last night. He played it till 12 o'clock.'"—Harper's Weekly.

The Hen Bird's Duty.

In his subsection on "modifications" of types of birds and animals Sir John Lubbock tells us of a particular crow in New Zealand where the male and female differ widely as to the structure of their bills. The male bird has a bill, stout and strong, adapted to cutting and digging into a tree, but he is deficient in that horny pointed tongue which would permit him to pierce the grub and draw it out. The hen bird has, however, an elongated and straight bill, "and when the cock has dug down to the burrow the hen inserts her long bill and draws out the grub, which they divide between them, a very pretty illustration of the wife as a helpmate to the husband."

Best Liniment on Earth.

Henry D. Baldwin, Superintendent City Waterworks, Shullsburg, Wis., writes: "I have tried many kinds of liniments, but I have never received much benefit until I used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism and pains. I think it the best liniment on earth." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. W. Johnson.

In answer to the many inquiries of friends regarding the Industrial Edition we will state that all orders for the same sent in or left at The Sun office will be as promptly filled as possible. Owing to the great demand for copies of the edition some may be a trifle late in reaching people from a distance, but they will sure be there.

The sub-committee of the Panama Canal Commission favors a lock canal There is every prospect of it being land-locked for some time to come.

The Tallahassee Daily Capital is closing some yearly advertising contracts with candidates for State Senator. Two now have their advertisements in that paper.

The Isle of Pines has snapped the hawser that made her fast to Cuba and is now preparing to float on the Caribbean sea without the aid of a tow-line from the Queen of the Antilles.

If you desire to do business these days you must advertise. The best lecturer on earth, if he has not got a reputation, can't draw a house unless he gets after the people with printer's ink. Printer's ink is what makes business move.

On Sunday, November 26th, Rev. C. T. Russell, the eminent divine of Allegheny, Pa., will deliver his famous sermon, "To Hell and Back," and on Monday evening Lewis Morrison will play "Mephisto," in "Faust," at the same house.

Some of the papers that thought the Democracy had carried the United States and were planning to go to Washington to inaugurate the President now realize the fact that it is an "off year" election and only a few States had an election.

If a cotton factory in Georgia is made to pay 15 per cent on the investment, why cannot the same profit be made on one in Florida? We have the raw material at hand and there are several men in our county and city who have faith in a cotton factory.

The first day of the State Fair at Tampa was a good opener, over 7,000 tickets being sold. When we stop to consider that the people are not so eager for the first day, the crowd was a good one. The Fair is the best ever held in the South and there will be a larger crowd next week.

The farmers of any section of the country are better able to judge what breed of horses are needed for all work than any one else and they should exercise care in making purchases. In many localities the horses are too heavy for plowing and other farm work, owing to the light, sandy soil. Experience is the best teacher of what is best suited to the work expected of a horse on the farm and frequently it turns out that for service the mule is the best. We are getting many good horses from Kentucky, but from hardy stock, and while they are not too large they have the endurance and are good on the road as well as on the farm.

STIRRING THINGS UP.

There are still malcontent politicians in Florida, but they refuse to keep still. The newest move is to attack the Buckman bill or law passed by the last Legislature, by which the educational affairs of the State were remodeled and a permanent university established.

According to these malcontents the Buckman law is all wrong; it is terribly unconstitutional, horribly so; it disrupts the selfish scheme of a whole crowd and lets the other fellows in on the ground floor to gobble up several soft snaps.

The people of the State are left to guess what is the motive for this attack upon the law. Of course the failure to cross all the t's in the original bill and to dot all the i's will be proved to be a defect that must disrupt the entire educational system of Florida and possible mole hill technicalities must be made to appear as mountains that these self-appointed guardians of the public weal may be glorified in their role of self-abnegated patriots.

Well, we are metaphorically holding our breath, waiting for the smash-up to come; then when the flow of good sets in and the university goes careering through limitless space into the great unknown, we will breathe easier in view of the great intake of satisfaction among the malcontents.—Cocoa and Rockledge News.

BERMUDA ONION SETS.

A Tampa news item in The New York Fruit and Produce says: As the time for planting Bermuda onions is approaching the question of which is preferable, sets or seed, is being discussed The acreage of onions will undoubtedly be increased as those who experimented last year are pleased with results concerning Bermuda sets. Crenshaw Bros. say:

"We handled through our seed department last season 2,000 bushels of Bermuda onion sets, planting on our own account for the market in the neighborhood of 400 bushels. These were scattered in different sections of this State, and while we know from experience that Bermuda onions will mature quicker from sets than from seed, we do not advise that the crop will be superior. We found that the seed, while maturing later, matured a much more uniform crop. It is possible that the sets being grown in the northern sections of this country, then planted in this State, causes the difference in maturity. We expect as usual to handle a considerable quantity of Bermuda sets and we are also among the largest importers of Bermuda."

NOT SO BAD.

The Ocala papers are trying to make it appear that local option in Alachua county is creating great havoc, which is not the truth. It cites the killing of a negro at Orange Heights as one instance, and the facts are that there was no liquor in the case. The negro threatened a white man, and afterward he cursed the little child of the man, who did the shooting in self-defense.

The other was a case where a number of negroes got whiskey from Ocala, or some other license town, and had a drunken row. Perhaps if there had been no liquor to be had in Ocala there would not have been any trouble.

In certain localities there may be some trouble, where liquor is brought into the county from the places that have license; but there has not been a drunken man arrested in this city for six months who got his liquor of a blind tiger. Our officers are making it too lively for them.

The President tells the members of his cabinet that they talk too much. He thinks perhaps that he can do all the talking that is necessary.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury,

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists. Price 75c per bottle.

HELP THE JEWS.

There is one good thing in being free from any of the entangling alliances that Washington in his farewell address cautioned the people of the United States to avoid, and that is the fact that we can "speak out in meeting" regarding the dastardly outrages being perpetrated on the suffering people of Russia and it's nobody's business but our own.

The recent unwarranted attacks on the Jews in Russia cannot help but bring the contempt of all fair-minded nations on the head of the men who encouraged it, yet the other countries of the old world are so mixed up with their alliances that they dare not utter a word.

There is nothing the people of this country have to fear from expressing themselves on this subject, and it should not be slow in letting the vainglorious Witte know that we are opposed to such butchery for humanity's sake.

The government contract for the manufacture of postal cards for the next four years has been awarded to a paper company at Rumford, Me. Under the previous contracts there were manufactured during the preceding four years 8,200,000,000 postal cards, and 60,000,000 were made during last June.

Head Ache Sometimes?

If so, it will interest you to know that it can be stopped with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills; and without any bad after-effects, and this without danger of forming a drug habit or having your stomach disarranged. They positively contain no opium, morphine, cocaine, chloral, ether or chloroform in any form. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain, and leave only a sense of relief. The reason for this is explained by the fact that headache comes from tired, irritable, turbulent, over-taxed brain nerves. Anti-Pain Pills soothe and strengthen these nerves, thus removing the cause. They are harmless when taken as directed.

"We use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for the cure of headache, and we think that there is nothing that will equal them. They will cure the severest spell of nervous or sick headache in a very few minutes. I am of a nervous temperament, and occasionally have spells when my nerves seem to be completely exhausted, and I tremble so I can scarcely contain myself. At these times I always take the Anti-Pain Pills, and they quiet me right away. It is remarkable what a soothing effect they have upon the nerves."
MRS. F. E. KARL, Detroit, Mich.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

It does the work in a thorough manner and is a terror to the many insects that infest citrus trees.

ISAAC SHARP, ex-Governor of Kansas, in a letter from 1227 I St., N. E., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I can earnestly recommend your Peruna as an excellent tonic. Its reputation as a cure for catarrh is firmly established by my friends, who have been benefited by its use, and the public should know its great curative qualities."—Isaac Sharp.

Improvement Association Meets.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 17.—At the meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement association today a memorial to the late Captain John F. Dravo, of Pittsburg, was presented. The afternoon session will be given up to the national waterways convention discussion with addresses by Thomas Wilkinson, president of the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association, and John A. Fox, secretary of the St. Francis River Improvement association, of Blytheville, Ark. The report of J. E. Ellison, secretary and treasurer showed the association to be in better financial condition than ever before.

Attorney Indicted for Murder.

Blease, indicted for the murder of Joe Ben Coleman, his brother-in-law, several months ago. Both men were prominent citizens of Saluda. Blease is one of the foremost attorneys of that bar and is now serving his first term in the state senate. Coleman was formerly a member of the state constabulary, and a prominent merchant of Saluda.

Big Fire in Albany, N. Y.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17.—Fire today destroyed the stock in one of the two temporary stores opened by the John C. Myers company after the collapse of their building last August, when thirteen people were killed and upward of thirty injured. The Meyers people say their loss will probably exceed $250,000 and the building, owned by the estae of A. B. Van Gaasbeck, is practically a total loss, upward of $40,000

Unemployed Men Cause Uneasiness.

Tokio, Nov. 17.—The number of unemployed, following the return of the troops from the field, estimated at 700,000 men, is causing uneasiness in view of the industrial depression now prevailing and the unlikelihood of a revival in business in the near future.

Man's Unreasonableness

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, manager of The Republican of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

Difficult to Raise Large Family.

New York, Nov. 17.—The statement that it is increasingly difficult for a working man to raise his family in decency and comfort was made in a paper read by Evangeline O. Booth, commander of the United States forces of the Salvation Army before the New York state conference on charities and corrections yesterday. Miss Booth maintained that where there is actual increase in poverty among the very poor, there is certainly an increasing helplessness among them. The farm colony, the paper read, is natural, the scientific remedy for this terrible evil can be made co-extensive with it.

Denver Jews Raise Funds.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 17.—A meeting of Jewish people at Temple Emanuel last night to protest against outrages on Jews in Russia, resulted in the raising of a fund of $5,000 for the relife of the victims of the outrages. Resolutions were adopted asking President Roosevelt to use his good offices with the Russian authorities to end the attacks on the Jews. The woman's club decided to hold a mass meeting soon after Christmas to raise a fund for the oppressed Jews of Russia.

Four Men to Hang.

Carson City, Nev., Nov. 17.—The state board of pardons which has the case of the four men, Sevener, Gorman, Roberts and Lindeman condemned to hang on Friday, Nov. 17, under advisement for two days, yesterday declined to interfere in the matter and the men will hang for the murder of Jack Walsh, a day laborer, whom they killed on a train between Winemucca and Reno in this state. The gallows has been made and will accommodate two men at a time. They will be hanged in pairs.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burhans of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to anyone suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Bird in the Hand.

It is impossible to trace the earliest use of the proverb "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," which in various forms of expression is common to many countries

In middle English we find phrases which have the same purport. Thus in Hille's "Commonplace Book" (1530) we find, "A byrde yn honde ys better than three in the wode," and in Rhode's "Babees' Book," also of early date, "A byrd in hand * * * is worth ten fyve at large."

No doubt our modern version springs from these old saws, and it is possible that they may have originated in the quaint remonstrance of one Will Somers, a jester in the court of Henry VIII., to whom Lord Surrey, in gratitude for many a good turn, had given a kingfisher from his aviary. When Surrey sought to recover it, promising to replace it another day, the sapient jester is said to have declined, saying, "I prefer one bird in the hand to two in the bush!"

The Seven Sleepers of Ephesus.

The seven sleepers of Ephesus were Constantine, Dionysius, John, Maximian, Malchus, Martinian and Serapion, seven young men, converts to Christianity, who during the persecution of Christians under the Emperor Decius, A. D. 250, refused to bow before an idol set up by the emperor at Ephesus. The story goes that they fled to a cave in Mount Celion and that Decius, in his rage, ordered all caves in that mountain to be sealed up. Nothing was heard of them for 230 years, when they were discovered by some workmen who were digging foundations. Awaking from their long sleep, they offered coins of such antiquity that the attention of the authorities was attracted. They did not long survive and their bodies were taken for burial in a large stone coffin to St. Victor's church, Marseilles.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsey, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 50c a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Strength of Treasury Notes.

A single treasury note measures three and one-eighth inches in width by seven and one-fourth inches in length. It will sustain, without breaking, lengthwise, a weight of forty-one pounds; crosswise, a weight of ninety-one pounds. The notes run four to a sheet, a sheet being eight and one-fourth inches wide by thirteen and one-half inches long. One of these sheets lengthwise will suspend 108 pounds and crosswise 177 pounds. It will be noted that a single note is capable of sustaining, crosswise, a weight of ninety-one pounds, which is twice the amount by nine pounds of the weight the note can sustain lengthwise, while, in the case of the sheet, the crosswise sheet lacks thirty-nine pounds of double the sustaining power of the lengthwise sheet.

Napoleon's First Cause, Mud.

That man is made of mud by spontaneous generation under the sun's heat was the deliberate opinion of Napoleon, first of the moderns, if General Gourgaud can be believed.

Referring to ancient civilizations in the east, Napoleon one day said to Gourgaud:

"All this leads me to think that the world is not so very old, at least, as inhabited by man, and within one or two thousand years I am disposed to accept the chronology appended to the sacred writings. I think that man was formed by the heat of the sun acting upon mud. Herodotus tells us that in his time the slime of the Nile changed into rats and that they could be seen in process of formation."

Cerberus' Three Heads.

The most famous of dogs is Cerberus, who watches the entrance to Tartarus. He has three heads, but Hercules dragged him to earth and Orpheus put him to sleep with his lyre. The original dog cakes were given to Cerberus by the sibyl who led Æneas through hell. They were made of flour and seasoned with poppies and honey. He must have been an opium fiend, as the celestial drug is made from poppies. A "sop to Cerberus" was one of these cakes given to the monster by Greeks and Romans as a bribe to let them in without molestation.

Chequers Inn Fire.

The Chequers inn at Slapstones, near Osmotherly, must be unique among English inns in one respect. It boasts of a fire which for more than a century has never been allowed to go out. The place is a quaint little building, to which many visitors resort on account of its never extinguished fire and the turf cakes baked upon its hearth. It has been in the occupation of one family for over 100 years.

Sluggish Liver a Foe to Ambition.

You cannot accomplish very much if your liver is inactive, as you feel dull, your eyes are heavy and slight exertion exhausts you. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and bowels and makes you feel bright and active. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and very pleasant to take. Orino is more effective than pills or ordinary cathartics. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Keep Your Head Clear

And your stomach free from Indigestion if you would be happy with your family and your fellow-man.

The surest thing on earth to get a man's system "out of whack" is heavy, soggy bread, which is caused by several reasons: First, the material may not be good; second, the cooking may be poor. The best flour in the world will make the heaviest bread if improperly mixed or cooked. WE USE THE BEST FLOUR and our "long suit" is knowing how to mix and bake it. Our bread does not cost any more than home-made, and in many instances it is so much more palatable.

MASON AND DIXON'S LINE.

Commonly Known as the Line Between the North and South.

Mason and Dixon's line between Pennsylvania and Maryland has been surveyed three times. The first survey was made by Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon between 1763 and 1767 at the instance of the Lords Baltimore, proprietors of Maryland, and the Penn family, proprietors of Pennsylvania. The line was 250 miles long. At the end of every fifth mile a stone was planted bearing the arms of the Penn family on one side and on the other the arms of Lord Baltimore. The intermediate milestones were marked simply with P and M. The first revision of the survey was made in 1849 and found, as did the last revision, that the original survey was substantially correct. Mason and Dixon's line, commonly known as the line between the north and the south, runs on parallel 39° 43' 26.3" and should be distinguished from the line of the Missouri compromise on parallel 36° 30'. Mason and Dixon's line never had anything to do originally with the question of slave and free states, but achieved an accidental association at the time of the Missouri compromise in 1820, when John Randolph in congress referred to it as separating freedom from slavery. After that it was commonly referred to in all controversies on the slave question.—Youth's Companion.

HANDKERCHIEFS.

They Are Often a Source of Grave Danger to Washerwomen.

Statistics have shown over and over again that washerwomen are much more likely to contract tuberculosis and actually suffer from the disease in much larger proportion than other working women of the same grade of life. This is due to the fact that the expectoration of the tuberculous patients clinging to their various articles of clothing is not rendered nonvirulent by antiseptics or by boiling before they come into the hands of the washerwoman. It is particularly handkerchiefs that are the most dangerous in this respect, and the enforcement of sanitary regulations with regard to expectoration is sure to add to this danger. It would be well if the Chinese custom of using a paper handkerchief (which the Chinamen of the better classes would disdain to carry with him once it has been soiled, but which he hands over to his servant to be disposed of by burning) could become the rule in this country. Until it does, however, physicians should call the attention, especially of those suffering from tuberculosis, to the necessity for having their handkerchiefs soaked for some time in a suitable antiseptic solution before allowing them to be sent out to become a possible danger for the overworked and underfed poor.—American Medicine.

CHURCH BELLS.

The Best Are Made From the Metal of Old Cannon.

"No silver is used in church bells," said the bell founder. "People claim there is, but I have assayed many an old bell that came here to be broken up and never an ounce of silver did I find in one of them.

"For the best bells we use old cannon. They give us the purest amalgam we can get. The tenor bell I am making now is composed of twelve tons of old cannon from Spain.

"These two molds, the core and the cope, are what give the bell its sweetness. It is in their cut that the secret of bell founding lies. The core is the inner mold. It has the exact shape of the bell's inside.

"We fit the cope over the core and into the space between the molten metal is run. When the metal has hardened and cooled the bell is finished, save for its clapper.

"To tune bells it is necessary to chip little pieces out of them. Our bell tuner is a good musician. He has composed a number of hymns."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Frightened Rabbit.

"I was walking across a field with my dog at my side when a young rabbit emerged from a wood close by," says a writer. "Suddenly it fell to the ground and was to all intents dead. The dog sniffed it, and I watched it for about ten minutes, thinking it absolutely dead. I walked away about fifty yards when I looked back and saw the rabbit rise and run rapidly into the wood whence it came. It is evident that it saw the dog and dropped down out of fright."

Caustic Whistler.

James MacNeill Whistler is said once to have confronted Oscar Wilde at the height of the aesthetic movement—with Du Maurier, who was satirizing the Postlethwaites in Punch with all his might, and to have genially inquired, "Which of you two invented the other?"

Friendship of Books.

The first time I read an excellent book it is to me just as if I had gained a new friend; when I read over a book I have perused before it resembles the meeting with an old one.—Oliver Goldsmith.

Slips of Artists.

It is a part of the seeming ill luck belonging to circumstance that an artist may spend time and genius on a piece of work and men fail conspicuously in some detail.

There is a story that one royal academician gave a hand five fingers and a thumb and that another painted a live lobster bright red.

The clever Goodall had been engaged in painting a number of laborers dragging a huge stone across the desert, and a man of science, entering the studio, said to him:

"I say, Goodall, if you want those fellows to pull that stone you must double their number. It would take just twice as many."

But it is not modern painters alone who slip up on points of accuracy. Even Albert Durer, in a scene representing Peter denying Christ, painted one of the Roman soldiers in the act of smoking. Turner put a rainbow beside the sun, and in another picture he got woefully tangled in the ship's rigging.

Incident of the Reign of Terror.

A dramatic incident of the reign of terror in France was the saving of her father's life from the guillotine by Mlle. de Sombreuil. M. de Sombreuil and his daughter were condemned to death at the time of the September massacres and were waiting in the cart, surrounded by the mob, for their turn to mount the scaffold. Mlle. de Sombreuil turned to the crowd and asked what harm a weak old man like her father could do to the nation. Some of the men answered that if she would drink a glass of blood to the nation they would let him go and passed up a glass. She drank it down immediately. The crowd took her and her father from the cart. They escaped and made their way to England. She thought at the time she drank blood, but afterward she concluded that it was red wine, for she saw no one stoop to fill the glass. To her death she was never able, however, to see red wine in a glass without a shudder.

An Odd Will.

A correspondent sends us a copy of an old will on record in the office of the ordinary of Lumpkin county, Ga. After appointing three executors, he "solemnly" requests them "to law N. Nicholson to the full extent of the law. I impute my cramp colic to his injustice to me." He further requests that "they pay themselves and our attorneys and spend as much as is necessary in buying a slab, and place on it: 'Here lie the remains of S. Douglas Crane. Born the 8th of November, 1800, who served five years in the Georgia legislature and never lost a day and dies in the full faith of the Methodist doctrine and in full hope, to which church he wills $50.'" In conclusion the testator requests "to be buried on the highest hill in the graveyard with the honors of war, a colonel's salute."—Law Notes.

A Pillar In Venice.

At a corner of St. Mark's church in Venice, the one nearest the ducal palace, there has been standing since the eleventh century a pillar of red porphyry carved with the portraitures of four noble gentlemen of Albania. In fact they were brothers who went to Venice in a ship laden with vast wealth. One couple plotted against the other to secure all the treasure and at a feast each duo of plotters poisoned the other. The signory of Venice seized upon their goods. In commemoration of so unbrotherly a conspiracy and as a warning against avarice the unique and exquisitely carved pillar was erected.

Worm Destroyer.

White's Cream Vermifuge not only kills worms, but removes the mucous and slime in which they build their nests; it brings, and quickly, a healthy condition of the body, where worms cannot exist. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The Sudanese Baby.

A Sudanese baby when dressed up in its best clothes is probably the most uncomfortable infant in the world. The coat or outer garment which fashion dictates should be worn reaches to the very heels. It is of heavy velvet, hanging in many folds. This, in turn, is adorned with countless buttons and bangles of brass, considerably adding to its weight. Its cap, in turn, is of the same material, similarly decorated and doubtless equally uncomfortable.

The Cocoanut.

Many pagan people regard the cocoanut as of divine origin because it is so useful. It supplies almost all their needs. With its trunk they build houses, with its leaves they thatch their roofs, the fiber of its shell they weave into clothes, the hard wood of the nuts they cut into bowls and saucers, its rind is their food, its milk is their drink, and its narcotic root they dry and smoke.

Sport In Ancient Rome.

In the palmy days of Rome the number of lions brought from Africa averaged 400 per year for nine years, and with these were leopards, tigers, hyenas, elephants, buffaloes and serpents almost without number. For several years there were 8,000 men employed in Africa in trapping wild animals to make sport for the people of Rome.

BIRD MIGRATION.

The Stars May Guide the Winged Travelers by Night.

The migration of birds by daylight has received a great deal of attention on the part of naturalists and bird lovers generally, but the passage of the feathered creatures during the night is still a matter for considerable speculation and theorizing.

That birds do travel by night is not disputed. Then how do they guide themselves over the long stretches of land and sea which separate their summer and winter homes? In the darkness they can scarcely distinguish those figurative milestones which are said to serve as guides by day. Their vision may be keen, but it is difficult to believe that the birds do "go by" those same guides at night, especially as they are often between two and three miles aloft, says Home Notes.

The supposition is that these creatures, like human mariners, shape their course by the stars. Whether they can distinguish the various planets or constellations or how they do it can at present only be conjectured, but the theory receives support from the fact that when the stars are obscured by clouds the birds come nearer to earth and appear to be disconcerted. It is thought that these small beings fly through space and have their routes mapped out by the innumerable celestial bodies that stud the universe is full of significance.

ACTORS IN CHINA.

They Get High Salaries and Are Able to Live In Luxury.

China is the actor's paradise. There are thousands of actors in the empire, and the "top notchers" earn considerably more in proportion than actors even in this country of high salaries. A native actor will earn, if he is a first rate man, as high as $1,800 a year, and while this money is insignificant compared to our princely pay lists it will procure comforts and luxuries to a native in China that could not be duplicated here for fifty times the amount. There is a national actors' club with 30,000 life members, and there is a special god in the temples to whom all good Chinese Thespians pray. It is very difficult to acquire the title of "actor" in China. The pupil is obliged to study three years as a super, and one more year is required to give him the finishing touch. The pupil must learn by heart a repertory of about fifty different plays, and the rest of his life is spent in acting these plays without the slightest chance of ever being permitted to learn new ones. The idea is that an "actor," as such, must not condescend to learn, which is fitting only to an apprentice, but an actor may without injury to his dignity teach worthy pupils what he himself learned as a pupil.—Chicago Chronicle.

THE STEAM RADIATOR.

If It Doesn't Give Enough Heat Turn the Fan on It.

There are a good many rooms where the radiator is either too small or the steam pressure is too low to maintain a comfortable temperature in severe weather. If the tenant is enjoying the station electric lighting service the matter can easily be remedied. Take an electric fan and set it where it will blow against a large part of the radiator's surface. Turn it on at a low speed or at high if necessary, and your cold room will soon be thoroughly warmed. The philosophy of the thing is that steam at a low pressure carries much less latent heat than steam at a high pressure and therefore warms the radiator so poorly that only a slight draft of air rises around the pipes, and condensation is slow. With the fan in operation there is a forced draft against the radiator that conducts a great deal more heat away from the iron, cooling it so that much condensation of steam occurs inside it. The heat thus snatched from the reluctant radiator is held in the circulating atmosphere of the room, which is soon changed from cold to warm at a trifling cost for electric energy.—Pittsburg Press.

The Man With the Grievance.

I suppose that there never was such a flourishing time as the present for men with a grievance. The daily and weekly journals eagerly welcome letters complaining of the increase of corpulence, the pitfalls of the split infinitive, the prevalence of the red tie among the lower middle class, the carelessness of the younger generation in dotting its i's and other equally dreadful abuses which do not matter one way or another. If one were not an incorrigible optimist one would be inclined to agree with the writers of these letters, who are for the most part men of enforced leisure and idle hands, that England is rapidly about to decline and fall.—London World.

Extreme Curiosity.

The fourteen-year-old son of a respectable Jew in Warsaw hanged himself the other day. He left a note, saying: "I have hanged myself out of mere curiosity. I could not help myself. I had to find out what they were doing in the other world."—Jewish World.

WILD BABOONS.

An Incident Which Illustrates the Caution of the Animals.

One of the farm boys drew our attention to what seemed little more than a couple of dark specks on the slope of the hills to the right, but we could soon see that they were moving, and when they came within half a mile of us we could distinctly recognize them as a herd of baboons.

The boy said that he was quite sure they were on their way to the water; but, to our surprise, they did not make any advance. A quarter of an hour elapsed, half an hour; still no sign of their approach. All at once, as if they had started from the earth by magic, at the open end of the pond, not sixty yards from our place of ambush, stood two huge males.

When or how they got there no one could tell. Probably they had come by a circuitous way through the valley, or it might be that they had crept straight down through the grass. They had certainly eluded our observation.

Being anxious to watch the movements of the animals and to ascertain whether they belonged to the herd playing under the mimosas, I refrained from firing and determined to see what would follow next. Both baboons sprang toward the water, and, leaning down, they drank till they were satisfied. Then, having gravely stretched themselves, they solemnly stalked away on all fours in the direction of the herd. There was little doubt, therefore, that they belonged to the herd and had been sent forward to reconnoiter, for as soon as they got back the entire herd put itself in motion toward the pond.

There were mothers taking care of their little ones; there were half grown animals, the boys and girls of the company. At first only one baboon at a time came to the water's edge and, having taken its draft, retired to the rest, but when about ten had thus ventured separately they began to come in small groups, leaving the others rolling and jumping on the sand.—Youth's Companion.

ODD FACTS ABOUT DEER.

Wonderful Jumpers, With a Marvelous Sense of Smell.

"Deer are wonderful jumpers, as may be imagined," says a writer. "I have seen a hind clear fifteen feet or so and buck as high as a tall man merely to avoid a small drain, and also, at a drive, I have seen a stag jump clear over one of the beaters, taking a fence at the same time. There is still extant the record of a famous leap made by a stag down on the borders of Etick during a hunt by one of the old Scottish kings. The place is known as 'the Hart's Leap,' and is commemorated by two stones, which the monarch had erected to mark the spot. They measure twenty-eight feet apart.

"Deer have a marvelous sense of smell. With a strong wind blowing they will scent a man a mile off. Yet, though their powers of scent are marvelous, I confess to having had one illusion quickly dispelled. From reading various old books on the subject I had come to regard their sight as something quite abnormal and fondly imagined that, on spying deer, say, a mile or so away, a cautious advance was necessitated, after the manner of our ancient enemy, the serpent.

"Now, though deer do have good sight, they are certainly inferior in this respect to the roe, and so long as you keep perfectly still, will have great difficulty in detecting you. I proved this again and again one July when trying to obtain photographs of wild deer. I did not get any photographs, though plenty of experience, but I was often lying within fifteen yards of deer without their being conscious of my presence."

Perpetual Noon.

One of the oddities of our system of reckoning time is exemplified in the question as to what time the north pole keeps. In theory all places on one meridian of longitude keep the same time; therefore the north pole, being the central point of all meridians, must necessarily have all times. Should the pole ever become habitable the resident would be able to have day or night at any hour (in theory) by electing to take his time from a meridian to correspond. Should such an unexpected event ever occur there would have to be made some readjustment of our present system of reckoning time to suit the arctic regions.

Photographing Lightning.

An English writer tells how lightning "sits" for its photograph: "Lightning can only be photographed at night. It is also impossible to use any cap or shutter for this work, inasmuch as the eyes do not observe a flash of lightning till at least a tenth of a second after it has passed. So that, having focused your camera beforehand, draw the shutter and hold the camera in the direction you think the flash will take and you must trust to the courtesy of the lightning to be there on time."

Emphatic.
